

War, Memory, and Literature:
Effects of the Second World War on Nordic Culture, 1939–2009

Half-Day Conference, Saturday 10 April 2010

Playfair Library Hall , Old College, University of Edinburgh.

Organised and funded by samarbetsnämnden för Nordenundervisning i utlandet/ Pohjoismaiden kielten ja kulttuurin ulkomaanopetuksen toimikunta/ Samstarfsnefnd um kennslu í Nordurlandafræðum erlendis in cooperation with the School of Literatures Languages and Cultures (Scandinavian Studies), the School of History, Classics and Archaeology, and the Centre for the Study of Two World Wars.

09.00 – 10.00 Dr Joachim Lund, Associate Professor, Copenhagen Business School.

“Changing Perceptions and Political Usage of the Wartime Experience 1939-1945 in the Nordic Countries.”

10.00 – 10.15 Coffee Break

10.15 – 11.00 Daisy Neijmann, UCL:

“Hitler’s role in Icelandic occupation literature.”

11.00 – 12.30 Authors' Discussion:

Helle Aarnes (Norway)

Teemu Kaskinen (Finland)

Ola Larsmo (Sweden).

Discussion chaired by Gunilla Blom Thomsen and Bjarne Thorup Thomsen.

Note! The public session ends at 12.30.

12.30 – 15.00 Closed session for delegates invited by Samarbeidsgruppa for nordenundervisning i utlandet:

12.30 – 13.30 samarbetsnämnden för Nordenundervisning i utlandet Lunch

13.30– 15.00 Scandinavian Studies in the UK. Discussion meeting introduced by Peter Graves, chaired by Arne Kruse.

